

Directions for CPCU Login and Event Registration:

CPCU Society Chapter Website Login:

Logging into your new CPCU Society chapter website requires a CPCU Society website member account. All CPCU Society members are automatically issued a CPCU Society website member account, which is your single website member account for the CPCU Society website and CPCU Society chapter websites. If you are a member and this is your first time logging in or if you have forgotten your CPCU Society website member account user name or password, please follow the below steps:

1. From the CPCU Society website or from the Columbus CPCU Society chapter website, click Sign in from the top right hand corner.

If you are a member and this is your first time logging in, enter the e-mail address you have on file with the CPCU Society. You DO NOT need to “Create a new member account.” All active CPCU members already have an account set up. After entering your e-mail address, if you have forgotten your CPCU Society website member account password, click “Reset password.”
